Questão 04

http://pt.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pedra_de_Guaratiba

Region initially called "Guratiba-Aitinga" or "Aratuquacima" is an indigenous word used by tupinambás who inhabited our coast during the discovery. Its definition is "a place where there are lots of herons / garceiro." It is easy to see that the word came from two other "wolf", which means "bird" and "tiba" which means "place where there is much gathered". Then: "Guaratiba. This definition is a reality, because until today we still boggles the meeting of White herons in, mangroves in the region.

Today the region is also highlighted, along with its interesting landscape, the variety of bars and restaurants that specialize in sea food dishes.

Marque a alternativa que apresenta uma expressão verbal, cujo significado associa-se ao sentido de existir.

- a. "Region initially called "Guratiba-Aitinga"..."
- b. "...word used by tupinambás who inhabited our coast during the discovery."
- c. "Its definition is "a place where there are lots of herons / garceiro"."
- d. "Today the region is also highlighted, along with its interesting landscape..."
